RECOMMENDATIONS.

The Rev. Abraham C. Baldwin has shown me a work, prepared with much care and labor, which in my opinion will be of great utility—an extensive collection of distinct subjects for the pulpit, arranged under a few general heads for greater convenience.

The design is to aid ministers in selecting interesting and appropriate topics for discussion; by summoning before them in one view, and at small expense, those which lie scattered in many volumes of the published productions of the pulpit. It is a work, which, if I do not greatly mistake, all the licentiates from our Theological Schools, and all our settled Clergymen who are not furnished with extensive libraries, will be ready to take: from which I am sure they will derive benefit far beyond the price which they will have to pay.

The Rev. Mr. Baldwin having favoured me with a communication of his plan of a small work for the use of Clergymen, suggesting topics and texts for discourses, I have great pleasure in expressing my opinion in favour of the utility of his design, and of the manner in which he has carried it into execution.

JAMES MILNOR.

The Plan of the Rev. Mr. Baldwin and the manuscript of his work have been exhibited to me, and I take pleasure in being allowed to add my name in commendation to those above given. It should be observed that it is not a book of Skeletons, but of topics on which the mind of the Preacher must be itself exercised, and it is certainly the more valuable on that account. I cheerfully recommend it.

THOMAS E. VERMILYE.

In the above we fully concur.

NATHAN BANGS.

The subscriber feels inclined to favour every thing which is adapted to facilitate the labours of clergymen, especially those of them who are young, and comparatively inexperienced. They, undoubtedly, often lose much time, and are subjected to much perplexity, in the choice of subjects for the Pulpit at once appropriate and sufficiently varied. In this view Mr. Baldwin's publication may be of no small use to those who have few books, and but little experience in the composition of sermons. The only fear is, that many who use this work, will not content themselves with having a topic suggested by Mr. B.'s book; but will be betrayed, unwarily, by this labour-saving machine, into the habit of resorting too largely to others for help in composition, as well as in the selection of topics;—a habit so full of mischief, both to preachers and hearers, that it is not easy to find terms sufficiently strong for warning against it. If those who may make use of the proposed publication should have sufficient decision of character to avoid this evil, they may be greatly accommodated by Mr. Baldwin's work. Such are the impressions which have been made on the mind of the subscriber by a glance at the first printed sheet of the proposed compilation.

SAMUEL MILLER.

PREFACE.

The design of this book is obvious from its title. There are few clergymen who have not at times found it more difficult to select an interesting and useful subject for a discourse, than to prepare a sermon after a suitable subject had been found. To afford timely assistance to his brethren in such circumstances, has been the object of the compiler in preparing the present work.

The plan pursued is different, it is believed, from any thing of the kind hitherto attempted. There have been published at different times, books containing Skeletons, or Outlines of Sermons, for the use of those who are either incompetent, or too indolent to frame a discourse without assistance. But such helps as these, are far worse than useless; they serve to destroy the inventive powers of the preacher, and make of him a complete drone. A clergyman who prepares his discourses by merely filling up plans made by others, ceases to respect himself, and so far as his practice is known, loses the respect of the community; and what is still worse, he will be likely to starve his hearers. Discourses thus composed will want unction,—their several parts, being made up by different minds of diverse habits of thinking and feeling, will be as incongruous as the iron and the clay in Nebuchadnezzar's image. Such books ought to be banished at once from every clergyman's Library, unless a very different use is made of them from that intended by their authors. If a preacher is really unable to prepare a discourse unless the framework is constructed to his hands, it is incumbent on him to pause, and seriously inquire whether he has not mistaken his calling. If he is too indolent to do it, there is reason to fear that he has mistaken not only his calling, but his own heart.

As this book furnishes nothing but Subjects and Texts, it is believed that, without affording any temptation or even facilities for being indolent, it will often be of essential service to the preacher, by suggesting interesting and important trains of thought which he will carry out independently, and which will be wholly his own. Some of the greatest and happiest efforts of the human mind have owed their origin to a single thought suggested by another mind, or to a striking text of Scripture. The intellectual powers are frequently stimulated to vigorous action upon the mere announcement of an interesting and appropriate theme.

There are here presented nearly three thousand subjects for the pulpit, most of which have been already discussed with much interest and profit by able divines. This latter circumstance, however, does not constitute the least objection to their being discussed again by other minds. Subjects and Texts (but not Skeletons) are common property. A preacher may discourse on a topic which others have canvassed before him with just as much of originality and profit as if he were the first person who made it a theme for the pulpit. There is one consideration in favour of a subject that has been once discussed with interest in the desk, and that is, the preacher may know that his theme has sufficient scope for a sermon, as it has been successfully tested.

The subjects in this volume are arranged, it will be perceived, with reference to convenience, and not to the order in which they should follow each other in a Theological System.

As it is frequently desirable to preach a number of sermons on the same general subject, there are appended several valuable Series, which may serve to assist the preacher in planning courses of Lectures for himself.

Permission has been kindly granted to insert the Analysis of Dwight's Theology. There are here given, at one view, the topics of a complete body of Divinity, logically arranged. Although most clergymen probably have this invaluable work in their Libraries, they may still find it convenient to have the Analysis of it in a small volume designed to lie upon their study-table.

Most of the subjects have connected with them appropriate texts of Scripture. In some few cases, however, the appropriateness of the texts given, and the correctness of their interpretation, may with propriety be questioned. The compiler wishes it to be distinctly understood that he takes no part of the responsibility of the interpretation of the texts quoted in this volume, but throws it entirely upon the authors of the discourses from whom the subjects are taken. The student should in all cases examine the interpretation of a text for himself before using it as the foundation of a discourse.

It was the compiler's intention, when he commenced this work, to place in the margin against each subject, the names of various authors who had written upon it; but as this was aside from his main design, and found to be the occasion of much inconvenience and delay in preparing the work for the press, it was thought best to abandon this part of the plan. Except in a few cases, therefore, the name of that author only is given from whose productions the subject was selected. Provision is made, by leaving a wide margin, for adding with a pen or pencil other names, as the owner of the book may see fit.

Occasionally the name of an author has been omitted in the margin through inadvertence.

It is not pretended that this book contains all those subjects which are profitable for pulpit discussion. It is presumed that every Pastor keeps a blank book in which he enters from time to time topics appropriate to the spiritual wants of his people, which are suggested to him in his reading, conversation, and pastoral labours. This collection is by no means intended to supersede the necessity of his keeping such a book. The blank leaves bound up with this volume are designed for him to use for this purpose. In this part of the book he can add subjects as they occur to him, arranged either according to the plan of the preceding pages, or according to a plan of his own.

To his younger brethren in the sacred office, the compiler trusts this work will be particularly useful. It will serve not only to help them to a subject for a discourse occasionally, but it will give them some idea of the vast field of discussion that lies before them, which they sometimes may have regarded as in a measure circumscribed.

Theological students when leaving the seminary will find this volume, it is believed, of considerable utility as they enter upon the arduous duties of the ministry.

To the Clergy generally of all evangelical denominations, this work is respectfully and affectionately submitted. If it serve to assist them in their studies—to give greater variety to their preaching—and in time of need to give an impulse to their minds in a profitable direction, the labour of preparing it will not have been spent in vain. That it may facilitate their labours in feeding the church of God, and winning souls to Christ, is the sincere prayer of their brother and fellow labourer, A. C. BALDWIN.

SUBJECTS FOR SERMONS.

SUBJECTS RELATING TO GOD.

BARROW. The Being of God proved from the Frame of the World.

Jer. 51: 15. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

BARROW. The Being of God proved from the Frame of Human Nature.

Gen. 1: 27. So God created man in his own image.

BARROW. The Being of God proved from Universal Consent.

Ps. 19: 3. There is no speech, nor language, where their voice is not heard.

BARROW. The Being of God proved from Supernatural Effects.

John 5: 17. But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

SAURIN. Eternity of God.

2 Pet. 3: 8. But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

SAURIN. Omnipresence of God.

Ps. 139: 7–12. Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me, even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee, but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

SAURIN. The Grandeur of God.

Isa. 40: 12–28. Who hath measured out the waters in the hollow of his hand, &c.

SAURIN. The Greatness of God's Wisdom and Power.

SAURIN. The Incomprehensibility of God's Mercy.

Isa. 55: 8. 9. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

SAURIN. The Severity of God.

Heb. 12: 29. For our God is a consuming fire.

SAURIN. The Patience of God with Wicked Nations.

Gen. 15: 16. The iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.

SAURIN. The Long-Suffering of God with Individuals.

Eccl. 8: 11, 12. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.
2 Pet. 3: 9. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

SAURIN. God the only Object of Fear.

Jer. 10: 7. Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

SAURIN. The Uniformity of God in his Government.

Heb. 13: 8. Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, to-day, and forever.

SAURIN. The Deep Things of God.

Rom. 11: 33. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

PORTER. The Immutability of God.

Ps. 119: 68. For thou art good, and doest good.

EMMONS. The Revealed Will of God the only Rule of Duty.

Deut. 29: 29. The secret things belong unto the Lord our God; but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

EMMONS. The Supreme Being the only Proper Object of Religious Worship.

Rev. 19: 10. And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God.

EMMONS. Divine Particular Providence.

Matt. 6: 30. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

EMMONS. The Being and Perfections of God.

Heb. 3: 4. For every house is builded by some man: but he that built all things is God.

EMMONS. Affections Essential to the Moral Perfection of Deity.

1 John 4: 8. For God is love.

DAVIES. The Divine Mercy to Mourning Penitents.

Jer. 31: 18—20. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

DAVIES. BEECHER. The Divine Government a Cause of Joy.

Ps. 97: 1. The Lord reigneth, let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

SIMEON. The Ground of God's Final Decision.

Gal. 6: 7, 8. Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

SIMEON. God's gift of his Son a ground for expecting every other Blessing.

Rom. 8: 32. He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

SIMEON. God's Compassion.

Hos. 11: 8. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? my heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

SIMEON. The Stability of God's Covenant.

2 Tim. 2: 19. Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, the Lord knoweth them that are his.

SIMEON. God will Fulfil his Word.

Num. 23: 19. God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

SIMEON. God sees our Inmost Thoughts.

Heb. 4: 13. All things are naked and open unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

SIMEON. God the Source of all Good.

James 1: 17. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

SIMEON. God Delights in Saving Sinners.

Zeph. 3: 17. The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

SIMEON. The Abundant Grace of God.

Rom. 5: 20, 21. Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound. That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

SIMEON. God's Readiness to give his Spirit.

Luke 11: 13. If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

SIMEON. The Manner in which God draws his People.

Hos. 11: 4. I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love.

SIMEON. The Loving-Kindness of God.

Ps. 36: 7. How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

SIMEON. The End for which God sent his Son.

John 3: 17. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

SIMEON. God's Distinguished Regard for the Poor.

James 2: 5. Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

SIMEON. The Majesty and Holiness of God.

Isa. 57: 15. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place.

SIMEON. God's Paths are Mercy and Truth.

Ps. 25: 10. All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

SIMEON. God's Method of Dealing with his People.

Zech. 13: 9. And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them. I will say, It is my people, and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

SIMEON. God's Sympathy with his People.

Zech. 2: 8. He that toucheth you toucaeth the apple of his eye.

SIMEON. God's Care for the Righteous.

Prov. 10: 3. The Lord will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish.

SIMEON. The Stability of God's Promises.

2 Cor. 1: 20. For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

SIMEON. God a Sure Defence.

Prov. 18: 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower, the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

SIMEON. The Ways of God Unfolded.

John 13: 7. Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

SMALLEY. On the Indiscriminate Dispensations of Providence.

Eccl. 9: 2. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

SMALLEY. God, the Author of Afflictions and Troubles.

Job 5: 6, 7. Although affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground; yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

SMALLEY. God's Pleasure is not to Afflict.

Lam. 3: 33. For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

SMALLEY. God to be Worshipped in the Beauty of Holiness.

Ps. 96: 9. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

LATHROP. The Wheels of Providence.

Ezek. 1: 16. The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

LATHROP. God works for his own Name's sake.

Ezek. 36: 32. Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you.

SIMEON. Christ's Execution of his Pastoral Office.

Ezek. 34: 16. I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick : but I will destroy the fat and the strong ; I will feed them with judgment.

SIMEON. Christ's Compassion towards the Weak.

Mat. 12: 18–21. Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the Gentiles. He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

SIMEON. Christ a Suitable and All-Sufficient Help.

Isa. 25: 4. For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

SIMEON. Security and Comfort in Christ.

Isa. 32: 2. And a man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

SIMEON. Christ's Commission.

Isa. 61: 1–3. The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

SIMEON. Extent of Christ's Compassion.

Ps. 146: 7, 8. Which executeth judgment for the oppressed, which giveth food to the hungry. The LORD looseth the prisoners. The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous.

Isa. 52: 13. Behold my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

SIMEON. The Depth of Christ's Humiliation.

Isa. 52: 14, 15. As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men: so shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

SIMEON. Christ's Death a Condition of our Salvation.

Isa. 53: 10. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him ; he hath put him to grief : when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

SIMEON. Christ's Satisfaction in his People.

Isa. 53: 11. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied : by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many ; for he shall bear their iniquities.

SIMEON. The Fruit of Christ's Death and Intercession.

Isa. 53: 12. Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong ; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors ; and he bare the sins of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

SIMEON. Christ's Resurrection and Glory.

Ps. 16: 8–11. I have set the LORD always before me : because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth : my flesh also shall rest in hope. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell ; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Thou wilt show me the path of life : in thy presence is fulness of joy ; at thy right hand there are pleasures forevermore.

SIMEON. The End of Christ's Ascension.

Ps. 68: 18. Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them.

SIMEON. Christ Victorious over all his Enemies.

Isa. 45: 23–25. I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear. Surely, shall one say, In the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed. In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

SIMEON. Christ coming to Judgment.

Jude 14, 15. And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

SIMEON. The Change wrought by the Gospel.

Isa. 55: 12, 13. For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

SIMEON. Frailty of Man and Immutability of the Gospel.

Isa. 40: 6–8. The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field: the grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the Spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand forever.

SIMEON. The Spirituality of the Law.

Rom. 7: 7. What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

SIMEON. The Scriptures recommended.

Deut. 11: 18–21. Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates: that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.

SIMEON. The Use and Benefit of the Scriptures.

Gen. 2: 1–3. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

WILSON. The Sabbath under the Law of Moses.

Ex. 20: 8–11. Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

A. FULLER. The Nature and Importance of a Deep and Intimate Knowledge of Divine Truth.

Heb. 5: 12–14. For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

A. FULLER. The Christian Doctrine of Rewards.

Gal. 6: 7, 8. Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

CHALMERS. The Preparation necessary for understanding the Mysteries of the Gospel.

Mat. 13: 11, 12. He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

CHALMERS. An Estimate of the Morality that is without Godliness.

Job 9: 30–33. If I wash myself with snow-water, and make my hands never so clean: yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me. For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment. Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

CHALMERS. The Judgment of Men and of God compared.

1 Cor 4: 3, 4. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment; yea, I judge not mine own self. For I know nothing of myself, yet am I not hereby justified; but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

CHALMERS. The Folly of Men measuring themselves by themselves.

2 Cor. 10: 12. For we dare not make our-

SIMEON. God Expostulating with Sinners.

Ezek. 33: 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked: but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

SIMEON. The Work of Redemption a Motive to Repentance.

Isa. 44: 22. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

SIMEON. Exhortation to receive the Blessings of the Gospel.

Isa. 55: 1–3. Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

SIMEON. The Strong Hold.

Zech. 9: 12. Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope.

SIMEON. The Spirit proffered.

John 7: 37, 38. In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

SIMEON. To the Heavy Laden.

Mat. 11: 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

SIMEON. Looking to Christ.

Isa. 45: 22. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

SIMEON. The Sinner Encouraged by the Greatness of God's Mercy.

Isa. 43: 25, 26. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

SIMEON. Crimson Sins made White.

Isa. 1: 18. Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

LECTURES ON REVIVALS, BY W. B. SPRAGUE, D. D.

Nature of a Revival.

Isa. 45: 8. Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

Defence of Revivals.

Acts 2: 13. Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

Obstacles to Revivals.

1 Cor. 9: 12. Lest we should hinder the Gospel of Christ.

Divine Agency in Revivals.

Hab. 3: 2. O LORD, revive thy work.

General Means of Producing and Promoting Revivals.

Phil. 1: 27. Striving together for the faith of the Gospel.

Treatment Due to Awakened Sinners.

Acts 3: 19. Repent ye, therefore, and be converted.

Treatment Due to Young Converts.

2 Cor. 13: 5. Prove your own selves.

Evils to be Avoided in Connection with Revivals.

Rom. 14: 16. Let not then your good be evil spoken of.

Results of Revivals.

Rev. 5: 13. Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, forever and ever.

FROM THE REV. ALBERT BARNES, IN NAT. PREACHER.

REVIVALS OF RELIGION IN CITIES AND LARGE TOWNS.

The Theory of Revivals.

Isa. 45: 8. Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together.

Vindication of Revivals and their Influence on this Country.

Isa. 45: 8.

The Influence of Revivals in Cities and Large Towns.

Luke 24: 47. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, BEGINNING AT JERUSALEM.

The Desirableness of Revivals.

Hab. 3: 2. O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

The Hinderances to Revivals in Cities and Large Towns.

Luke 19: 41, 42. And when he was come near he beheld the city and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong to thy peace.

Mat. 23: 37. O Jerusalem! Jerusalem! thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not.

The Duties of Christians in Regard to Revivals there.

Acts 17: 16. Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred within him when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.
